A legacy of learning...a history with heart

We are at that time of year of celebrating graduations. Please keep in your prayers our graduates as they celebrate their commencement from various levels of academic achievement: from Preschool to Kindergarten up to Middle School.
These are important moments of transition to new things. It is a time of relishing the accomplishments, and remembering the struggles, failures and successes that formed us. It is a time to be very grateful for teachers, mentors, family, friends and peers who have journeyed with us along the way. It is a time to appreciate that we had the educational opportunities that we enjoyed. In these days we keep all our graduates in our prayers.
Congratulations to our 8th grade graduates!:

Have you ever stopped to consider all of the people who have done something for you that makes your life better? Parents, relatives, friends, neighbors, teachers, pastors, nuns, and strangers have helped us along the way. From them we learned life skills and life lessons that serve us all through life, everything from catechism to math, from tying our shoes to writing our résumé. We owe others so much for our success. So how do you say thanks?

We can express our appreciation in so many ways. A written note, a conversation, or a small gift can acknowledge someone's gift to us and offer thanks for his or her generosity. That assumes we know who they are, or can remember what they have done. But others have worked anonymously or helped us at a time when we did not realize how good they were to us. So, the best way to express our thanks is to pass on the gift we have received. By teaching or helping or mentoring someone else, we honor those who have made a difference in our life, enabling their generosity to continue influencing and helping others. Be grateful for all that you have received and pass it on!
